

Symposium and Master Class at St. Stephen's

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church

16 Highland Avenue

Cohasset, MA 02025

October 9, 2021

You are invited to participate in our Mini-Symposium and Master Class held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Cohasset on our 57-bell Gillet and Johnston instrument, which was enhanced with Taylor bells when the carillon was expanded to 57 bells in 1989.

The symposium will feature a Masterclass conducted by Ellen Dickinson, and two seminars, one which will explore improvising at the keyboard and the other that will discuss works by women composers and people of color, and how to incorporate them effectively into your programs.

The purpose of this symposium is also to give our members a chance to gather together and talk, meet, play and finally enjoy each other's company in a shared meal at the end of the day. It has been a long time since we have been able to meet in person, and we are hoping this symposium will give us a chance to do that.

If you would like to play in the Master Class, please let us know what you would like to play. It would be most helpful if you can identify a problem that you would like help with, or perform a piece that exemplifies a particular way of playing, rather than just coming to play. The Masterclass Moderator may ask you to play only a portion of your piece, or play for only a limited time, so that all players have an equal chance to perform, and so the Masterclass serves the needs of all those in attendance.

Event Organizers: John Whiteside, Carillonneur at St. Stephen's; Margaret Angelini, Carillonneur at Wellesley College; Lee Leach, Carillonneur for the Town of Norwood; and Margaret Pan, Carillonneur At Large.

Our event is dependent upon the local community allowing in-person meetings. All locally active Covid restrictions will be in place, and participants are encouraged to wear masks when indoors.

A brief word about cost: We are planning to present the days activities, including the pizza Extravaganza, at no cost. Fees are covered by a grant from the Guild of Carillonneurs of North America, and from St. Stephen's Church. We ask that you bring a beverage or your choice for the Pizza Extravaganza. Wine, beer, soft drinks and juices are OK, hard liquor is not. See you in October!
